

*The sources of man can only be partially understood. The secret of personality, its uniqueness, is not understood by anyone to the end. The person of man is more mysterious than the world. She is the whole world. A person is a microcosm and contains everything.

*Personality is the main mystery of the human world

- * As general factors of psychotherapy in terms of what happens to the patient, usually indicate:
- * 1) appeal to the sphere of emotional relations;
- * 2) the very understanding accepted by the patient and the therapist;
- * 3) provision and gender
- * the teaching of information;
- * 4) strengthening the patient's faith in recovery;
- * 5) accumulation of positive experience;
